Composting & Recycling is the Law for California Residents

Properly sorting your food scraps & other compostable materials not only helps fight climate change, it's now the law.

Effective January 2022, State law (SB 1383) requires residents and businesses to keep compostable and recyclable materials out of California's landfills.

Visit StopWaste.org/rules-orro-residential-flyer for a downloadable flyer that covers how to properly sort recyclables & compostables, and provides tips for preventing food waste. The flyer is also available in Español (Spanish), 中文 (Chinese), 한국어 (Korean), and Tiếng Việt (Vietnamese). Learn more about 1383 and the Alameda County Organics Reduction & Recycling Ordinance (ORRO) by visiting StopWaste.org/rules

Introducing Trash-Free San Leandro

Single-use food packaging is now the number one listed item found on our beaches and waterways per the Ocean Conservancy's study of the annual Coastal Cleanup Day's results in 2019. The key to reducing much of the litter we see in our communities is to make an effort to choose reusable dishware. San Leandro has designed a program to encourage, educate, and reward businesses and residents to take steps toward reducing dependency on single-use foodware.

What Individuals Can Do:

Whenever possible, choose reusable dining items over single-use options.

- Bring your own cup
- Bring your own utensils
- Choose a San Leandro eatery that uses on reusable dishware
- Talk to family, friends and neighbors about how each of us can plan to reduce the amount of disposable foodware created during any dining experience – we are all in this together.

What Businesses Can Do:

Wherever possible, offer reusable dining items for your patrons.

- Reusable drinkware
- Reusable utensils
- Reusable dishes
- Cloth napkins

The City of San Leandro is dedicated to educating, encouraging, and rewarding San Leandro businesses that are taking steps to reduce the garbage created by single-use foodware, such as plastic cups and utensils. To learn how residents and businesses can help create a Trash-Free San Leandro, please reach out to the Recycling Program at Recycle@sanleandro.org
